Welcome!
 If you're visiting with us today, we want you to feel welcome and we want you to feel like our honored guest! We also want you to know that all we're interested in here at the Clarksville Church of Christ is the Truth. Jesus said, "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32. The truth He's talking about is God's word. Jesus said, "Sanctify them by thy truth, Thy word is truth." John 17:17. Therefore we hope you'll appreciate that we'll give you book, chapter and verse from the Bible, the word of God, for everything that we say or do here today, so that everything that we do may bring glory unto God, I Pet. 4:11.

We Ought to Love One Another As Christ Has Loved Us

Most folks recognize the importance of loving others. The question is: in what manner should we love others? The point is especially important for those who are Christians. This week, let's meditate on the truth that we ought to love one another as Christ has loved us.

If anybody might be expected to demonstrate an exceptional quality of love, should it not be those who claim to be the people of Jesus Christ? Too often, however, we demonstrate something other than that. At times, we find ourselves tending toward self-righteousness and disdain for those who are "sinners." On one occasion, Jesus was in the home of a Pharisee named Simon. This man was critical of Jesus for allowing a woman with a sinful reputation to kiss his feet and anoint them with fragrant oil. So Jesus asked Simon, "A certain moneylender had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. When they could not pay, he cancelled the debt of both. Now which of them will love him more?" (Lk. 7:41,42). Concerning this woman's love for him, Jesus said, "Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven — for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little" (Lk. 7:47). We need to work on eliminating from our hearts the problem the Lord discussed with Simon.

Loving others as Christ has loved us is never more important than when we need to forgive others. The matter is put plainly in Mt. 18:21–35, where Jesus told the story of a servant who was forgiven a gigantic debt by his king but refused to forgive a much smaller debt owed to him by a fellow servant. In condemning this servant to prison, the king asked, "Should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?" (Mt. 18:33). If we do not forgive others, God will not be willing to forgive our sins against Him (Mt. 6:14,15).

Christians are to share a special love and a unique devotion for each another. Let's think about the relationship we should have as those who are in the Lord. Especially since we have a responsibility to evangelize the community in which we live, we need to remember what the Lord said about the effect believers' love for one another can have on those who are not yet believers: "By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (Jn. 13:35).
